DETAILED ACTION

1. A new claim 29 has been added.
2. Applicant has responded on 7/9/2008 to the Restriction Requirement mailed on 4/2/2008 by election of Group I, claims 1-8, 1-11, 21-28 with traverse. Also it is noted the new claim 29 depending on claim 24. However, in view of the new cited prior art (see below), the instant invention does not satisfy the single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. Accordingly, the argument with respect to the restriction requirement is moot in view of the new lack of unity Office Action (See below).

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-7, 12-16, drawn to oligopeptide.

Group II, claim(s) 8, 17, 21-22, 25-28, drawn to a method of diagnosing Celiac Sprue disease by detection the presence of antibody specifically bond to the oligopeptide in individuals.

Group III, claim(s) 9 and 18, drawn to a method of diagnosing Celiac Sprue disease by detection the agglutination of anti-gliadin antibodies in individual.

Group IV, claim(s) 19-22, drawn to a method of diagnosing Celiac Sprue disease by detection the presence of an oligopeptide in biological samples.

Art Unit: 1641

Group V, claim(s) 23-24 and 29, drawn to an antibody.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-V do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

With respect to Group I, Arentz-Hansen et al. (Gut 2000 Vol. 46, page 46-51) teach an oligopeptide having the following sequence (100% homology)(See Figure 2):

Qy	1 LQLQFFPQPQLPYQPQLPYQPQLPYQPQPF		33
Db	57 LQLQFFPQPQLPYQPQLPYQPQLPYQPQPF		89

It is noted that PFPQPQLPYQPQLPYQPQLPYQPQ is the combination of the first three epitopes recited in claim 2: PFPQPQLPY; PQLPYQPQ; PQLPYQPQ.

Furthermore, Garcia-Maroto et al. (Plant Molecular Biol 1990 Vol. 14, page 867-868) also teach the same oligopeptide as the following (See Figure 1; 100% homology):

Qy	1 LQLQ PFPQPQLPY QPQLPYQPQPF		33
Db	76 LQLQFFPQPQLPYQPQLPYQPQLPYQPQPF		108

As shown in the above sequence homology, the underline represents the first and third epitopes recited in claim 2.

It has been shown that the instant oligopeptides are known product recorded in the prior art. The instant invention also depends on using these oligopeptides for diagnosing and producing antibodies. However, the cited prior arts indicate the instant invention does not satisfy the single inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. Therefore, it deems lack of unity.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

4. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained.

Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
